CONSENT FORM

The Scotland’s Rock Art Project is undertaking community co-production of research into prehistoric rock art. Your participation may involve fieldwork and other physical activities. We may occasionally use photographs, videos or audio recordings of people taking part in activities connected with the project. This material may be used in research publications, on our website, and on social media channels to raise awareness of the project. It is our policy only to use material featuring people for whom we have consent and advance permission. Please could you sign and return this form to us if you are willing to provide your consent and permission for the following (please note that points 4 and 5 are optional. If you chose to opt out, we will ensure that any information you provide is not shared with others):

1. I confirm that I have read the Participant information sheet on the Scotland’s Rock Art Project, and that I have had the opportunity to consider this information and ask questions and had these answered satisfactorily. I understand that my participation in this co-produced research is voluntary and that I am free to withdraw at any time without giving a reason.

2. I confirm that if I take part in any activities connected with the Scotland’s Rock Art Project, I do so freely and at my own risk.

3. I give consent for members of the Scotland’s Rock Art Project team, as part of Historic Environment Scotland, to use anonymous quotes from any group sessions and interviews in which I agree to participate.

4. Optional: I give consent for members of the Scotland’s Rock Art Project team, as part of Historic Environment Scotland, to use photographs of myself participating in activities connected with the project.

5. Optional: I understand that the group sessions may be audio/video-recorded and documented, and that views expressed throughout the project (including via social media) will be used for research purposes and may be passed to other researchers.
